Chikan Fabric – A Legacy in Every Stitch

One of the most graceful and iconic textiles of India is chikan fabric. Originating in Lucknow, this hand-embroidered fabric is known for its delicate floral motifs, often crafted using white thread on light, airy materials like cotton or muslin.

Chikan fabric India represents a beautiful intersection of craftsmanship and tradition. It's ideal for making kurtis, sarees, tunics, and even contemporary pieces like fusion dresses and skirts. Its subtle elegance makes it a staple in summer wardrobes.

At Fabcouture, you'll find a wide collection of this exquisite fabric that reflects the soul of Indian artistry. Whether you're aiming for a classic or modern look, chikan fabric offers unmatched versatility.

Velvet – Plain or Embroidered, Always Royal

Velvet is synonymous with luxury. With its rich texture and regal appearance, velvet fabric is a preferred choice for bridal outfits, party wear, and winter fashion.

Fabcouture features both plain velvet fabric and embroidered velvet fabric online India — allowing you to choose between understated elegance and extravagant style.

- Plain velvet fabric is perfect when you want your silhouette or cut to shine. It serves as an excellent base for heavy embellishments or as a standalone statement in minimalist designs.

- Embroidered velvet fabric online India offers depth and opulence. Intricate embroidery on velvet adds a festive flair, making it a favorite for lehengas, saree blouses, and even modern jackets.

Both types of velvet elevate your garments, and Fabcouture ensures premium quality and color richness in every yard.

Embroidered Georgette Fabric – Sheer Sophistication

Another must-have in any designer's toolkit is embroidered georgette fabric. Lightweight, breathable, and with a slightly grainy texture, georgette drapes beautifully and is easy to work with.

What makes embroidered georgette fabric so appealing is its balance of comfort and class. Whether you're designing sarees, anarkalis, or flowing dresses, the embroidery adds just the right amount of glamour.

Fabcouture curates a tasteful range of embroidered georgette in trending colors and classic motifs, allowing designers to bring their vision to life effortlessly.
